Best Wishes to you on your Birth Day - ^{Janatta,} you have been a wonderful support
over the last few years,
to us.
Especially since I took ill in 19
2017. I am losing the plot!
Anyway have an enjoyable birthday
much love + good wishes to you.
Love from Mum,
Xxxx.

When my sister
arrived,
I asked if I could swap her for a rabbit.

Janatha has taught me a lot of things.

How spicy red Tabasco sauce is.

How to frighten mum as to nearly give her a heart attack.

That you call the lounge a sofa.

That the lounge room is called the sitting room.

The toilet is called the loo.

How to give a party (give lots of orders and then run off 30 min. before guests arrive to shower & dress to look pretty for the party).

What to do and say when you are introduced to somebody (shake his/her hand, if offered, and say "How do you do?").

How to spend money.

How to save money at sales by buying things that you don't need.

How to love shoes and scarves.

How to be stylish (though I don't apply the lessons learned much anymore).

How to be a daughter.

How to be a sister.

How to be a friend.

To never give up.

Thank you Janatha and Happy Birthday xx

— love Catherine

P.S.. A Very Happy Birthday, Janatha, from David xx

If you don't annoy your big sister for no good reason from time to time,
she thinks you don't love
her anymore.

Jan

You are my sister.

A big sister you are.

Smart, witty, kind, strong, loving.

You are respected by me.

Bright, sensitive, creative

A friend to me.

Talented, thoughtful, funny

One of a kind to me

It makes me proud to call you

My big sister

Happy Birthday Jan

Dear Janatha

Thank you for all you have done for me and Mum over the past five years. It is much appreciated and we couldn't have managed what we did without you.

I hope you have a wonderful birthday and many more birthday's to come!

Love and kisses always (Bridesmaid No 2!)

Dear Janatha,

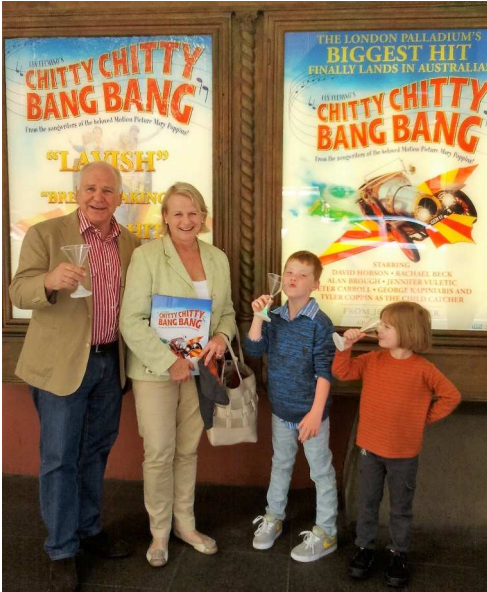

Happy 60th Birthday, You are 60 years of incredible style and goodness, You are an amazing cool and really know how to look after your guests. We haven't seen you in a while and the last time was cut short but I look forward to meeting you again soon to celebrate in person and have a nice chat.

Love Malachy,

Happy Sixtieth Birthday Auntie Janatha!
 One of my fondest memories is going to the theatre with you and Uncle David. I especially enjoyed seeing 'Chitty Chitty Bang Bang' in Sydney where we had our photo taken drinking from cocktail glasses with our pinky fingers in the air. Afterwards we would always have dinner together at that little Italian restaurant which made it extra special.

Hope you have an amazing day on this special occasion of yours.

Hay Jana,

As luck would hoove it, as experts in our fields, we coudn't bullieve it when we herd an udderly remarkcowble occowasion was being kept udder wraps.

We coudn't let the delicious Tetbury Park grass grow udder our hoofs, so we muster mooved quickly to cownt the ways that we think you are fabullous.

Becowse you are popbullar, nobull, have impeccabull style,
keep us amoused & don't do things by calves.

We bullong with you, bullieve you me!

We'll never moove from here!

Anycow, we cud not go pasture without hoofing it over to say how bulloved you are...

Hoove a moovellous birthday.

We'll love you for heifer & heifer.
