My Dear Maggie.

Just a line hoping you are well as this leaves us all well at present I am sure by this time you are very tired of your journey. it seems so long in four more days you will be in Free mantle & the 9th & on the 14th you will be in Melbourne. I am forgetting that you call at Adelaide it is a nice place the time is going in. I am very glad you are so near the time will soon pass I have been very busy. I do feel so being tired I could do with a rest. I am trying to see you & hear to hear all the good news from home I do hope you have had a good passage & free from sea sickness I suppose Annie will be out on the next boat so my said in his last letter I should write you a long letter but I am so sleepy & tired I have a sleep in between I do hope to

to be able to meet you we are getting slack again & I am not sorry the babies is a great worry & fine of them & the sixth one was still born I was ready to run away. I am glad to say I have just one in with a kidy the rest is general work which is best well dear I bring off & count the days till we be happy once more now dear good night & god bless you

From your Loving Mother.
